

JOHN HAY DIED THIS MORNING

Statesman, Diplomat, Scholar And Gentleman Passes Away After Long Illness.

PRESIDENT ROOSEVELT GRIEVED

Nation Has Lost A Statesman; Roosevelt A Close Friend And Adviser--Funeral To Be In Cleveland.

[SPECIAL BY SCRIPPS-M'RAE]

Newbury, N. H., July 1.—Secretary of State Hay died at his summer home here at twelve-fifty o'clock this morning. The end came very suddenly and most unexpectedly. The secretary had passed a comfortable day, all symptoms for regaining his health being favorable. At eleven o'clock, however, the attending nurse noticed a serious change in his condition. She immediately summoned Doctors Scudder and Murphy. Mr. Hay's condition was such that he was unable to reach the bedside. The immediate cause of his death is said to be pulmonary embolism.

Roosevelt Greatly Shocked
Oyster Bay, July 1.—President Roosevelt learned of the death of Secretary Hay at three-forty o'clock this morning. The President was inexpressibly shocked by the sad tidings. He had hoped that Hay would be able to resume his duties in the state department in the fall. In the death of Mr. Hay the President feels that he has lost a close personal friend and the country a master mind. President Roosevelt will attend the funeral. It is thought here that the services will be held in Washington and the interment be at Cleveland, Secretary Hay's home.

Telegrams of Sympathy
President Roosevelt sent the following telegram to Mrs. Hay: "I cannot believe the dreadful news. Please accept our deep sympathy in your terrible bereavement. I don't know what to say to express my sorrow."
Choate May Succeed
Washington, July 1.—It is believed in official circles here that Secretary Hay will be succeeded by Joseph H. Choate, recently resigned ambassador to England.

The Bulletin
The bulletin announcing Hay's death is as follows: "Secretary of State John Hay died at twelve-fifty o'clock this morning. The signs immediately preceding death were those of pulmonary embolism. Mr. Hay's condition during all Friday had been satisfactory.

(Signed)
"CHARLES L. SCUDDER, M.D."
"FRED T. MURPHY, M.D."
Dr. Scudder said Mr. Hay did not suffer much in the final moments. A stimulant was administered but produced no effect.

Buried at Cleveland
The funeral will be held at Cleveland. The body will leave on a special train at eleven o'clock tomorrow morning. The interment will probably be at Lakeview cemetery.

The end came suddenly and unexpectedly, as all of Friday he improved so rapidly, that Dr. Murphy said, he would be able to leave his bed by Sunday.

Mrs. Hay and Mrs. Scudder and Murphy were at the secretary's bedside when the end came. The secretary bade good-night to his wife and to his attending physicians about 10 o'clock Friday night, at the end of one of the best days he has had since his illness. The local trouble was clearing up satisfactorily, according to Dr. Scudder.

Passed Comfortable Day.

The secretary suffered none of the old pains in his chest, which characterized his earlier illness. He had been comfortable all day and happy in the anticipation of leaving his bed for the greater freedom and comfort of a couch.

At 11 o'clock he was sleeping quietly.

A few minutes after 12 o'clock he called the nurse, who at once summoned Dr. Scudder.

Both Dr. Scudder and Dr. Murphy hastened to the bedside. The secretary was breathing with difficulty, and expired almost immediately afterward, at 12:50.

Secretary Hay left Washington June 23 for his summer home here. He had been in the national capital since the preceding Monday, after his return from the several months which he spent in Europe.

During his brief stay in Washington Mr. Hay attended actively to business before the state department, and had several interviews with the president on important pending questions. Thought to Return in Fall.

At the time of his departure he was looking forward to a period of rest and recreation at his summer home and fully expected to return to Washington in the fall fully recuperated in health and strength.

Although he appeared considerably better than when he left Washington for Europe just following his severe illness of last spring, yet it was evident to his family and friends that he was far from being a well man.

Tuesday Secretary Hay was prostrated by an attack of uræmia at his summer home in Newbury, caused by a chill caught in the journey from Washington. The next day, however, he was resting more comfortably.

On Wednesday the secretary did improve somewhat, but the cold, wet weather prevailing at the time proved a drawback. Mrs. Hay, however, felt so encouraged that she advised her daughter, Mrs. Harry Payne Whitney, to sail for Europe as she had intended.

Ocean Trip of Benefit.

Secretary Hay sailed for Europe in March, almost in a state of physical collapse. In fact, he fainted at the dock as he was about to go aboard the steamer and had to be almost carried to his stateroom.

The voyage across the Atlantic restored him and he went direct to Bad Nauheim in Austria, where he hoped to be benefited by a course of the baths.

At Bad-Nauheim the secretary lived in the strictest seclusion. He saw no visitors and placed himself entirely under the orders of his physician. He took the regular course of baths, twenty-one in number, three in a week, so altogether he remained there seven weeks.

At 2:40 this afternoon the federal grand jury returned indictments against four corporations. Nineteen individuals for alleged violation of the Sherman anti-trust act. Corporations are: Armour, Swift, Cudahy, Fairbanks Canning Co. Among the leading packers indicted are J. Ogden Armour, P. A. Valentine, T. J. Connors, Arthur Meeker, Edward A. Cudahy, Arthur F. Evans, D. E. Harwell, Louis F. Swift, Edward F. Swift, Charles M. Swift, Albert Veeder, Edward Morris, C. E. Todd, Vance E. Skipworth and R. N. Morris.

CHARLES R. TREAT IS NOW TREASURER

Is Counting Up the Government's Cash as Left by Ellis H. Roberts, Outgoing Officer.

[SPECIAL TO THE GAZETTE]
Washington, July 1.—Charles R. Treat, who succeeds Ellis H. Roberts, was sworn into office today as United States Treasurer.

Immediately the new treasurer took up the great work of counting the cash in the government's treasury for which he will be responsible and to make the account of the retiring treasurer straight. When Mr. Roberts came into office eight years ago, the count took a number of weeks, many persons being employed. The retiring treasurer had to pay $600, due to the theft of some silver dollars while the count was progressing, as Treasurer Roberts gave a receipt for the amount turned over to him. Should anything like a shortage be revealed the outgoing treasurer's large bond will cover it, but such a thing, unless technical, resulting from bookkeeping is never even thought of in advance.

Own Order.

[SPECIAL TO THE GAZETTE]
Washington, July 1.—The first quarterly meeting of the isthmus canal commission was held here today, by order of President Roosevelt. The instructions of the President to govern the commission require four meetings a year to be held on the isthmus. Today's meeting is the only exception that will be made to this requirement and was made because all of the members of the commission with the exception of Governor Magoon are now in this country and the matters discussed could be better handled here than in Panama.

[SPECIAL TO THE GAZETTE]

BONAPARTE WILL BE ATTORNEY GENERAL

Was Today Sworn In as Secretary of Navy—Will Be Schooled in Roosevelt's Policy.

[SPECIAL TO THE GAZETTE]
Washington, July 1.—Charles J. Bonaparte, of Maryland, was sworn in to office today to succeed Paul Morton as secretary of the navy. Mr. Morton having resigned to associate himself with the affairs of the Equitable Life Assurance Society. Those who are in a position to know state that Mr. Bonaparte will not hold the naval portfolio long, for it is President Roosevelt's intention to make him attorney-general when Mr. Moody retires from that office next year. Mr. Bonaparte is regarded as an able lawyer and an ardent reformer—just the kind of man the President believes he needs to hunt trusts, rebate givers and dishonest public officials. The department of justice is a better field for that kind of work than the navy department and Mr. Moody has decided to return to the practice of law in about a year. He is anxious, however, before he retires to conclude the fight against the beef trust. The real object of taking Mr. Bonaparte into the cabinet at this time is said to be to familiarize him with the Roosevelt policy relative to the trusts.

Has Resigned

London, July 1.—A dispatch from St. Petersburg states Gen. Sakharoff, the minister of war, has resigned.

Story of Surrender Untrue.

The Daily Mail's dispatch is as follows:

"Odessa—It was reported by the authorities that the Kniaz Potemkin had surrendered unconditionally, but it is now confirmed that it was joined by the battleship Georgi Pobiedonosets, whose officers were made prisoners."

"Both vessels are anchored in the roads, and are using searchlights vigorously as if expecting an attack from the squadron, which is about fifteen miles distant."

"The commander of the troops has received a telegram from the government ordering him to sink the rebel ships without regard to a possible bombardment."

"I have information regarding this second mutiny on absolutely reliable authority."

Torpedo Boat Joins Rebels.

The London Times' St. Petersburg correspondent, writing before the receipt of the sensational midnight news, sent the following significant dispatch: "St. Petersburg.—Admiral Krieger delayed his departure from Sevastopol. One of his destroyers in the meantime reached Odessa and joined the mutineers."

"The Kniaz Potemkin Tavritchesky left Sevastopol on July 26 with the squadron. The mutiny occurred during the maneuvers and it was enabled to slip away unnoticed."

"Admiral Chukhnin, who was at St. Petersburg, on learning the situation, telegraphed to Admiral Krieger to catch and sink the battleship."

Did Not Miss Ship.

Admiral Kruger, who was at sea, received the order by wireless telegraph. He replied that no ship was missing. He had returned to port when the absence of the Kniaz Potemkin was first noticed.

"The government is suppressing all news. Even the officials of the ministry of marine in nine cases out of ten are not aware of the mutiny. It is understood the official version drafted for publication stated that the mutineers had left Odessa on board a foreign steamer."

"One dispatch from Odessa says it is rumored that a mutiny has occurred on the battleship Tchesma at Sevastopol."

GOVERNOR HINDERS MADISON PLANS NOW

Keeps in Close Touch with the State Administration Even Though Away.

[SPECIAL TO THE GAZETTE]
Madison, Wis., July 1.—The government at Madison still lives. While the governor is making an extensive trip on the Chautauque lecture circuit, at $200 per lecture, the functions of the executive are supposed to be performed by Lieutenant Governor Davidson but he will not assume authority to act except on the most trivial and routine matters without first submitting the business to the itinerant governor. Governor La Follette is away from the state; but so well does he keep his hands on the affairs of state politics that nothing other than the merest routine is done in his absence and whenever a new matter that has not been previously determined is presented the situation is—We must wait until the governor returns before deciding. That the city of Madison is making every possible effort to expedite the laying of an asphalt pavement on the streets around the capitol park, in accordance with the plan for the capitol appropriation bill, by which the legislature made the pavement a condition precedent to the spending of any money toward improving or rebuilding the statehouse. It is necessary to remove the trolley poles from the center of the street in order to lessen danger of accident. This must be done before the pavement is laid and permission must be granted by the superintendent of public property, but General Bryant refuses to act until the governor returns. Acting Governor Davidson refuses to act without waiting for "Bob" who will be here for an entire day, July 12. The executive will be the busiest man in the state that day, passing upon the accumulations of his absence.

umphal entry of the Princes of the House of Nonesuch, returning with their retinue of knights and courtiers, after a year's absence, to dazzle an expectant populace with the accumulated spoils grudgingly yielded by a reluctant world. Hordes of wild people from the deserts and plains and mountain fastnesses, strange beasts of the jungle, charlatans, beautiful women from many climes, clowns, troubadours, and acrobats, will follow in their train. Overamorgau has its Passion Play; Berreuth, its Wagnerian cycle; New Orleans, its Mardi Gras; Pasadena, its Festival of Flowers; St. Louis its Feast of the Veiled Prophet. Janesville has its Nonesuch Brothers—potatoes of mirth, patrons of the beautiful, the grotesque, the unheard of; absolute monarchs of the sawdust arena that has for its only canopy the blue sky.

Great Indian Durbar. Ecstasies in its barbaric splendor, any spectacle ever hitherto offered on this or any other continent, Asia not excepted, will be the reproduction of the great Indian Durbar, presenting the beautiful Lady Curzon, vicereine of the mysterious realm beside the sacred Ganges. Lady Curzon will be accompanied by a first class vicereine and the two will ride in the magnificent royal chariot, drawn by sixteen coal-black horses. Accompanying this gorgeous equipage will be an escort of native princes, a regiment of Sepoys, swarthy, white-turbaned slaves waving huge fans of peacock feathers, flower-girls, musicians, and squadrons of mounted

This is absolutely necessary on account of the several hundred horses which will be used in the gigantic procession.

But One Feature of Day. It must be remembered that the Nonesuch Circus parade will be but one of the features of the day's celebration. The great Industrial parade and addresses by chosen speakers are arranged for the morning. In the afternoon, following the circus, there will be high class vaudeville specialties on the streets and band concerts. A display of fireworks, in addition to the illumination with colored fire of the entire city, will constitute a portion of the evening's program.

COTTONY SCALES RUINING MAPLES

LETTER FROM WASHINGTON RELATIVE TO THE PESTS.

BUT LITTLE HOPE IS GIVEN

Methods of Treating Small Trees Is Encouraged; Large Ones May All Die

The appearance of the cottony scale on the trees in Janesville and their rapid development in the court house park where the soft maples bid fair to be denuded of leaves and small branches has led to a letter being written to the bureau of Entomology, regarding the scale and its means of extermination. The following letter has been received and will interest those who seek to save the shade trees in Janesville:

The Anomer. Dear Sir: In the temporary absence of the Entomologist, Dr. L. O. Howard, I have to reply to your letter of the 9th inst., addressed to the Honorable Secretary of Agriculture and referred to this bureau for attention.

Maple Twigs. The insect infesting the maple twig which you send is the common cottony scale of the maple (Pulvinaria lanum). The cottony (really wax) mass is the egg receptacle secreted by the adult scale insect. The young scales hatch from the eggs in this mass in June and July and spread out over the leaves, returning to the twigs in the autumn.

A Remedy. The remedy is to spray the trees with an oily mixture within a month after the young emerge. The spray recommended is kerosene emulsion, following the directions given in Farmers' Bulletin No. 127, copy of which I am sending to you under separate cover. As a rule this scale insect does not necessarily threaten the life of the trees attacked, and is apt very shortly to be brought under control by natural enemies.

Natural Enemies. These natural enemies consist of parasitic flies and predaceous insects. No experience has been had in artificially encouraging the presence of natural enemies. The insects follow a native species, and its enemies follow it as a rule fairly promptly, and I do not believe anything will be gained by attempting to artificially hurry the latter up.

An Impossibility. In fact, it would be impossible to collect such enemies in sufficient numbers to aid materially. It is, therefore, probably inadvisable to undertake the expense of spraying large trees. With small trees, which may be more easily sprayed, it may be well to apply the remedy indicated.

Yours truly, C. L. MARLETT, Acting Chief of Bureau.

HEADQUARTERS FOR THE CELEBRATION

Established in the Jackson Block—All Committees Make Most Favorable Reports.

At a meeting held in the city hall last evening reports were received from the chairman of the various committees in charge of the Fourth of July celebration. The greatest enthusiasm was manifested and everything showed that the arrangements were proceeding without any hitch and in a manner eminently satisfactory to everyone concerned. Chairman I. F. Wortendyke presided.

Eugene Fish, who heads the civic parade committee, stated that there would be an unusually large turnout of particularly fine floats, nearly every business concern in the city evincing a desire to be represented. This parade will start at ten o'clock.

Frank Hinterschied, chairman of the decorations committee, said that hundreds of electric lights would be strung on the streets for the evening celebration. Arrangements had been made for thousands of yards of bunting and flags.

There was some discussion regarding the condition of the streets and the advisability of forming the Nonesuch circus parade at the fair grounds. Chairman George McKay was of the opinion that some inclosed place of the kind was absolutely necessary and the others concurred with the view. Unless it is found absolutely impossible, then, the circus will move from these grounds at two o'clock. All exhibitors should be there before one o'clock.

A. E. Bingham announced that the Edgerton, Ft. Atkinson Juvenile, and Lake Mills Concert bands had been engaged. Likewise a drum corps and the Imperial band. These bodies of musicians will play both in the forenoon and afternoon and in the evening. The Imperial band will give the concert in Courthouse park in the evening, and the others will play at suitable places elsewhere in the city.

The amusement committee announced that a series of vaudeville acts would be given on three platforms immediately after the circus parade. These features will be augmented by band concerts.

Report was made by the advertising committee that men had been sent through the whole of Rock county and portions of Dane, Green, Walworth, and Jefferson counties to bill the celebration. Flattering notices had appeared in the newspapers of Chicago, Milwaukee, Madison, La Crosse, Beloit, Rockford, Delavan, Darlington, Ft. Atkinson, Whitewater, Lodi, Clinton, Monroe and Evansville. The New York Tribune had also given some space to that unique feature, the Nonesuch Bros. circus.

T. S. Nolan of the speaker's committee reported that those who were to make the addresses in the morning had been engaged. These exercises will occur at the Courthouse park and will be attended by the mayor and council in carriages.

The vacant store in the Jackson block, adjoining the Rock County National bank, has been secured as general headquarters for the celebration and was opened this morning.

European Skin Specialist Says Dandruff Is Caused by Parasites. Upon that theory, proved beyond a doubt, a cure for dandruff was sought after. Scientists, chemists, druggists and physicians all "too a hand," and the successful issue is the present product known as "Newbro's Herpicide."

This remedy actually kills the parasites that infest the hair bulb, does its work most effectively and contains not a atom of substance injurious to any thing else than the germ alone. Herpicide causes the hair to grow as nature intended it should, soft and abundant.

Partly cloudy tonight and Sunday with probable showers; variable winds.

If your business is the smallest in its line in the city or next to the smallest—your need of publicity is as great as your hopes of growth.

OUR SATURDAY NIGHT.

Next Tuesday will be the nation's holiday. The day which celebrates the anniversary of Independence. The day when the small boy expresses enthusiasm in noise, and his older brother seeks to crowd into 24 hours the pent up patriotism of 12 long months.

Janesville, like many other towns, will celebrate, and as everything will be free, there is no question about everyone getting the worth of their money. The Nonesuch Brothers' circus, always a novelty, will be better than ever this year.

The management have arranged to keep the tired and thirsty crowd on the move, and every effort will be made to satisfy the demands of that ever troublesome factor, "both sides of the river."

When the day is over, the farmer boy will go home in the small hours of the night, feeling a little better acquainted with his best girl, because of the day of relaxation, and a little less inclined to work at sunrise the next morning.

The day will pass into history, as have many others, with but little thought of its significance and without a "thank you" for the blessed privilege of living on American soil in this year of our Lord nineteen hundred and five.

There are some things like water, air and independence, which are so common, that they are seldom appreciated. They are taken for granted as a matter of course.

The national banner will be displayed in every home, and float from public buildings all over the land, but the fact that it is worth more to live under the protecting folds of this banner than any other which floats, will receive but little recognition.

The world in which the most of us live is very prescribed and limited. The same horizon greets the morning sun for the better part of a life time, and the same hills hide it from view as it disappears at the close of the day.

The same conditions prevail, to large extent, in the realm of thought and mental activity. The daily paper and neighborhood gossip, satisfy demands, and the great outside world is a blank book to a large class of people. This is why independence day is more noted for noise than patriotism.

Forty odd years ago, three or four farmer boys were on hand at 3 o'clock on the morning of the "4th" to wake up the neighborhood with an old cannon, borrowed for the occasion.

The old gun was hauled down into a valley and fired from a bridge which spanned the little stream. For an hour the bombardment was fast and furious, but not a soul appeared on the scene.

The boys were a good deal disgusted and were at a loss to account for the failure of the celebration, so carefully planned. They tugged the old cannon back to the top of the hill and stopped to rest just as the sun flashed its brilliant rays across the landscape, causing every dew drop to sparkle like a diamond.

An old farmer crossed the road, with pails in hand, on his way to the barn, and noticing the little way begone group, said:

"Hello, boys, what are you up to this time in the morning?" One of them replied, "Oh, we've been trying to celebrate for an hour down on the bridge, but we couldn't wake anybody up."

The old man laughed and said: "Just watch the gun out here in the road and try it again." He helped them put in a good load and then stood back to wait for the report. When it came the roar of sound swept across the valley and echoed back from the hills and the neighborhood showed signs of life in every direction as people rushed out to see what had happened.

As the old man picked up his pails he said to the boys: "When you want to celebrate get up on the hill tops where you can see the beauties of nature, and where the fresh morning air and the glad sunshine will fill your hearts with thankfulness for the privilege of living on free American soil."

The old man was right and the never forgot the lesson. While it is not always possible to live on hill tops, yet it is a good place to gather inspiration and to gain a glimpse now and then of the land of promise.

Every young man who appreciates in any degree the responsibilities of life, as he stands at the threshold and peers into the uncertain future, is better prepared for the conflict if he realizes that American citizenship carries with it a passport to success for every man who is loyal to the trust and who is prepared to grasp the opportunities as they come to him.

Late statistics roughly summarized round up the population of the United States as follows:
 Farmers10,000,000
 Children15,000,000
 House wives16,000,000
 Wage earners30,000,000
 Business and professional men9,000,000

Total50,000,000
 To one of the four classes the 15 million children will find a place by the close of the second decade. The girls will many of them join the ranks of house wives and become home-keepers, a post of honor recognized as the crowning glory of womanhood.

Many of the boys will join the wage earning class and a few years of experience will determine whether they are built to climb or remain stationary.

It matters not so much where a young man begins, for every honest calling is a stepping stone, and there are summits and hill tops in all legitimate lines of work.

The one important thing to be remembered is that America is his birthright, the land of great possibilities and greater opportunities, and that the prizes of life are within the grasp of every intelligent and faithful steward.

The 4th of July is an annual reminder of the nation's independence, as well as the freedom vouchsafed to all her citizens. It should be a day of patriotic loyalty and genuine appreciation.

The stars and stripes, so freely displayed, should bring joy and gratitude to every heart, for it is a great privilege to live today on soil dedicated to freedom.

The last legislature passed the anti-pass measure and hundreds of passes held by Wisconsin men have been passed back to the railway in order to allow the arm of the law to pass them without passing at them and hundreds of men who supported the governor are passing mean remarks about things coming to a pretty pass when they are deprived of their passes.

"What was the matter with Jones, cow? I hear she died last night."

"Yes, she got hold of the bottom of an old cane seated chair and ate it."

"Poor thing; she probably thought it was breakfast food."—Will F. Griffin in Milwaukee Sentinel.

Then again for any hopes of recovery her case was too deep seated.

Lieutenant Wilson, who is to be court martialed on the charge of duplicating pay accounts, now proposes to go into business. Evidently he has been reading the magazine sensations of Tom Lawson and Ida M. Tarbell and believes that his sort of talent belongs in a wider field than that opened in the army.

When Taft's Philippine party returns from their junket there will be a few more men in this country who will be unable to make a speech without referring to the islands.

Russia is riven by revolution, the Scandinavian peninsula is divided by secession and America suffers in the throes of "In the Shade of the Old Apple Tree."

A man down in Alabama was hanged for murdering his father-in-law when the latter interfered in the family affairs. Now quit joking about the mother-in-laws.

What are the women of Secretary Taft's Philippine party going to do when they reach the far east? We haven't heard of any boulevards, beach resorts or slums over there.

So Gompers wants to organize a baseball players' union. Can't do it. There are too many batters who have found striking disastrous already.

The minds of some men are so brilliant that the linings of their caps are always faded.

Every point of the new auto law is not aimed at the chauffeurs.

PRESS COMMENT.

Gloomington Standard: Is Independence Day a time for mirth and frivolity? Our erring neighbor, Janesville, seems to think so.

Exchange: The Cornell crew won the varsity race. Japan did not have a crew entered.

Madison Journal: The boy who thinks his father perfect ought to tell the old man of the fact.

Chicago Record-Herald: The Queen of Roumania rises at 4 o'clock every morning, but not, we must add in sorrow, to get the king's breakfast.

Cleveland Press: Because Cornelius Daly, veteran oarsman of Yale, was accused of cribbing at an examination is no sign he is a numb snail.

Madison Democrat: It is announced that the postal deficit this year will be about $15,000,000. Evidently the fake sheets are yet freighting the mails.

Green Bay Gazette: Another electric railway is planned to run out of Madison. This time it is headed for Stoughton. Madison is doing a large amount of railroad building—on paper.

Minneapolis Tribune: Isn't it remarkable how in this strenuous existence a man finds time to lead two lives? It is hard enough for most people to lead one.

Oshkosh Northwestern: "Graft, graft, graft!" shouts The Appleton Crescent. For goodness' sake, are the people not doing enough of it already without being admonished in this reckless manner?

Atchison Globe: George Herring belongs to an old-fashioned type. When he hasn't behaved, he buys his wife a handsome present. They say that the latest is the prettiest present he ever gave her.

Racine Journal: A Texas negro will have to have the longevity of Methuselah if he lives out his sentence as his term in prison has been fixed at 1001 years. The jury thought that probably as the crime which he was accused of could not be punished by death, that the ends of justice could best be served by a thousand year sentence.

Milwaukee Free Press: Mr. Gompers is trying to interest the baseball players of the entire country to organize into a union, so they can take part in labor troubles and be called on to strike when occasion demands. That would be a master stroke of union business. If all the baseball players in the country should strike at the same time it would mean paralysis, and nothing less. It would be worse, if anything, than a general tieup of the street piano business.

Appleton Post: If national supervision of insurance companies can prevent in the future such unseemly squabbles and mismanagement as have characterized the Equitable, let us by all means have national supervision, as the president advocates, even though a constitutional amendment be required. But it does not readily appear wherein national supervision will accomplish what state supervision has failed to do. The only real safeguard and preventive is to entrust the management of these great fiduciary interests to men of the highest character and tried integrity, if such can be found. A company which places a James Hyde at the head of its affairs will inevitably encounter the same experiences as those which befell the Equitable.

Fond du Lac Reporter: Considerable sport is being made of the partiality of the Kansas farmers for college students as farm hands. It may seem funny at first thought but the Kansas farmers are pretty wise after all. It takes intelligence to do farm work these days. Something more than mere muscle is required. The machinery will do that part of it. A bright young man, fresh from college will do fifty per cent more work than a tramp farm hand who only wants enough money to get a suit of clothes and attend the county fair. A boy who has ambition enough to work his way through college has ambition enough to do conscientious and faithful work on a farm. He will not be discouraged by hard work and he will bring his brains to the assistance of his hands in an effective manner.

Beer and Shakespeare
 Evening Wisconsin: While George R. Peck and Ogden H. Fethers, with other Phantoms, were riding in the drug with Walter Duppe as whip, after their pleasant visit to the Aladdin palace of James H. Eckels, Mr. Peck asked Mr. Fethers, "Have you read 'The Amber Witch'?" "No," was the reply. "Is it about Milwaukee beer?" "Isn't it?" retorted Mr. Peck. "The Amber Witch" is beer is the Yellow Peril. The talk turned on Shakespeare, and Mr. Fethers told of the enjoyable experience which he and Senator Quarles had had, during a visit to England, of being guided in the Forest of Arden by William Winter who called their attention to the evidences that it was the actual locality described in Shakespeare's "As You Like It" though the poet, resorting to the license of his art, maintained the pretense that the scene was laid in France.

MISS FRANCES RYAN IS SUPERINTENDENT

Of the State School for the Blind Until Further Direction From the Board of Control.

C. R. Showalter, who has been at the head of the State School for the blind two years received official notification this morning that Miss Frances Ryan, who has been book-keeper and assistant steward at the institution, had been appointed superintendent until further direction from the state board of control. Similar notice was received by Miss Ryan.

Mr. Showalter has expected to retire for some weeks and has been awaiting the appointment of his acting successor before making definite plans for the future. Both Mr. and Mrs. Showalter have made many friends in Janesville during their sojourn here who will sincerely regret their departure from the city.

Miss Ryan is a niece of E. H. and Dan Ryan. She is a graduate of the Janesville High School and the Dixon Business College. During her short term of service she has proven herself one of the most efficient book-keepers in any of the institutions of the state and the board of control have failed to find a single error, even of the most inconsequential nature, in her work. On this account she has several times received the warm commendation of the members. Until the new appointments to the board of control are made and that body is re-organized it is probable that the permanent successor to Mr. Showalter will not be appointed.

A baby boy has arrived at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Manthey, J. L. Cunningham transacted business in Edgerton yesterday.

Love of Sport Put Above Money.
 In spite of the charge that Americans are not sportsmen and that the "commercial idea" enters into all our sports, the fact remains that few, even of the professionals, make any large sums out of the games. Which would seem to indicate that, although they are admittedly "after the money," the love of the sport itself is what keeps men in the games.

Something He Missed.
 Leon, the six-year-old son of a New Hampshire newspaperman, was taken to church for the first time when there was a communion service. Gazing at the preliminary preparations with the deepest interest, his curiosity got the better of him when the plates of bread were handed solemnly to the waiting deacons, and in a loud whisper he inquired of his mother: "Is it

ELECTRIC LINE TO TAP THE CITY

PROJECTED ROAD FROM WAU PACA TO JANESVILLE.

MEANS NEW CONDITIONS

A Milwaukee Engineering Company Substantiates The Story of Proposed Road.

Are Philadelphia or Milwaukee capitalists behind a proposition to build an electric railroad extending from Janesville to Waupaca and tapping a rich tobacco and sugar beet belt? Has a syndicate been formed to tap this proposed line of road to $2,500,000 for the hundred miles of road to be laid? These are questions that are puzzling Janesville business men today. A report that such a road was under consideration leaked out in Milwaukee yesterday and hints of this sort have been heard on the streets here for some days past. The talk of deal between the Janesville Street Railway company and the Interurban corporation appears to be entirely separate. Mr. Blabon, who represents the owners of the local road, is in Europe and will not return for some days, while the present plan projected seems to have been brought to a head by a party of Philadelphia capitalists who met in Milwaukee yesterday.

Profiles Ready
The reports from Milwaukee even go further and state that the profiles for the proposed road have been prepared in Milwaukee by the Milwaukee Engineering company and that surveys will be sent out by this company this coming week to begin the field work and lay out the proposed road. Mr. Roff, President of the Milwaukee Engineering Company, stated this morning that the fact that Philadelphia capitalists were interested was merely a back of the project, but stated that the road if built would be in the neighborhood of a hundred and thirty miles long and built at a cost of forty thousand dollars a mile. It would be equipped with heavy electric engines weighing from twelve to fifteen tons and while primarily a freight road, would also run passenger trains. He stated that the Milwaukee Engineering Company was merely employed in the capacity of consulting engineers and that upon their report the stockholders of the project would base their work. He also stated that it was the purposes of the promoters of the road to secure local capital in the territory they traversed and that it would be dependent upon this feature whether the road was built or not.

Unknown Here
T. S. Nolan, attorney for the Rockford, Beloit and Janesville Interurban company, knew nothing of the projected road. He said that he had heard no whisper of such a deal being consummated. At the Rock County Sugar company which the Milwaukee story said would be directly benefited nothing was known of the project. Superintendent Murphy of the Janesville Street railway had heard nothing of any such move. The rumor that a preliminary survey had been made was not substantiated, although a report from Edgerton said that in the past ten days a party of surveyors had left that city for the north towards Jefferson. The story as published in the Milwaukee morning paper follows:

Sugar and Tobacco Country
While there is little information to be had here as to identity of the Philadelphia capitalists, it has been ascertained that they represent tobacco and sugarcandy interests, and their proposed electric line will tap what they consider to be most productive sugar beet and tobacco country in the northwest. From what can be learned here, the proposed line will be devoted largely to hauling such classes of freight as have to do with the sugar and tobacco industries, and it will be an adjunct to the sugar-beet factory at Janesville in the sense that it will carry the sugar beets grown in Waupaca, Waushara and Green Lake counties to the Janesville factory. Likewise the line is expected to make of Janesville the principal tobacco shipping point in the northwest.

Bakers Identity Kept Secret
Only meager information as to plans could be gained here. At the offices of the Milwaukee Engineering company, Hathaway building, where profiles for the survey were prepared, nothing could be learned beyond the fact that the profiles had been prepared there. This was admitted, but when the name of the capitalists were asked for it was said that the Engineering company had no authority to give out any information on the subject, but that as the capitalists were from Philadelphia and would be in Milwaukee in a few days, all that there was to know about the project probably could be learned at that time. It also was said that the Philadelphia people were here two weeks ago and ordered the survey made. The surveying will be done by men from the company.

The Cities to Be Touched
How soon it is expected to begin the work of construction could not be learned yesterday, but there are intimations to the effect that the work of construction is to be taken up almost as soon as the survey is completed. The route as laid out in the profiles is from Janesville directly north almost on an air line, to Waupaca. The principal cities to be touched by the road are Edgerton, Jefferson, London, Waterloo, Dardford and Berlin. It also is proposed to construct a line from Berlin to Oshkosh. It is reported that the entire system will then be connected with the Interurban line running up from Rockford, Ill., to Beloit and Janesville. It is reported that some of the same capital which is back of the Rockford line is it is interested in the new line.

Opens Rich New Territory
The country which is to be tapped by the proposed line is said to be well adapted to the growth of sugar beets, but that the farmer of this district had not taken up the line of farming.

cause a majority of them are too far removed from any railroad to make the growing of sugar beets profitable. A portion of the territory tapped by this proposed line is twenty miles from any other railroad, so that no matter how well adapted the soil and climate might be to the growth of sugar beets, there was no suitable means of transportation. The new road, running into Janesville, it is believed will make this branch of farming extremely profitable. It is reported that the managers of the beet-sugar factory at Janesville have talked with the farmers all along the proposed route along the border lines between Dane and Jefferson, Dodge and Columbia, Green Lake, Waushara and Waupaca counties about taking up sugar beet farming, and that many farmers already have experimented with the proposition in a small way so that they have some idea of the profits. This same territory is beginning to take up the culture of tobacco, and for that reason there is talk that the transportation of tobacco to Janesville will constitute a considerable portion of the business of the road.

To Cost $20,000 a Mile
The cost of construction and equipment it is said will be in the neighborhood of $20,000 a mile, a considerable portion of which will be represented by electric locomotives and other rolling stock.

SPECIAL CARS ARE BENEFIT TO TRAFFIC

The double half-hour service on the Rockford, Beloit & Janesville electric road, as instituted last Sunday, is a decided success. The day's traffic being one of the heaviest of the year, was carried smoothly and no cars were crowded, practically everyone having a seat. The same service will be on next Sunday and picnic parties and all will be assured comfortable accommodations.

SMOKE HOME-MADE CIGARS
Thousands of Dollars May Be Saved to Janesville.
When Mr. Garvin of the firm of Garvin and Murphy was asked in regard to the business outlook for the next twelve months he said without a moment's hesitation: "I see prosperity on every hand. We are doing a fine business; in fact, our factory is taxed to its utmost to supply the demand for our cigars—the Garmur for ten and the Little Garmur for five cents." In talking with this gentleman the thought suggested itself to the writer that it would make a big difference in the prosperity of Janesville if smokers would be more particular and order home-made cigars. It was done it would not be long before fully 100 more cigar-makers would find employment here and at good wages, too—about fifteen dollars per week on an average. Many of these men would come here with their families and they would be good and steady patrons of all lines of trade and thousands of dollars that is now sent east every month would be spent right here among the merchants of Janesville. There is hardly a tradesman in town that would not get some of this money—and regularly, too. The cigars above named are as good as the best. No man can honestly say that there are not just as good as the cigars made in the east.

MRS. E. G. FIFIELD DIED AT NOON TODAY

Passed Peacefully in the Great Beyond—An Early Settler of Janesville.

Shortly before one o'clock today Mrs. Elbridge Garry Fifield passed to the great beyond. Mrs. Fifield came to Rock county when it was a wilderness. She was born in West Bridgewater, Mass., in January of 1827 and fourteen years of age she attended a young ladies' boarding school in Boston, coming from this institution in the early fifties to Wisconsin to act as housekeeper for her brothers, Edward and Charles Copeland, who had made their home in Jefferson county. Here she met Mr. Fifield and returned east and was married in West Bridgewater on October 24, 1853. They came directly west and remained in Janesville for two years, moving to Jefferson where they made their home for nine years more. In 1864 they returned to Janesville and have since made their home at 204 Jackson street. Mrs. Fifield was a leader of the social life of Janesville in an early day and her life has been one of love and devotion to her family. Mrs. Fifield leaves to mourn her loss, a husband and four children, Mr. Frank Fifield, Miss Catherine Fifield, Mrs. Helen Sherer and Mrs. James Fifield, and nine grandchildren. Mrs. Fifield is a direct descendant of Miles Standish, the mighty captain of the early Puritans, Francis Cook and John and Priscilla Alden. The funeral will be held on Monday afternoon from the Fifield residence, 204 North Jackson street, at three-thirty.

CANADIAN WHEAT LANDS

Interview With Jas. W. Scott of the Firm of Scott and Sherman.

"We have a great proposition in Canadian lands," said Mr. Scott of the above firm. "We offer lands at from eight to fourteen dollars per acre and on easy terms. There is no richer wheat land in the world and there is no place where this crop is more certain. Some think the climate is very cold up there, but this is not the case. In the Assiniboia strip where our lands are located there is a warm current from the Pacific ocean that very much modifies the climate and further than this the air is dry and good health prevails. This is a most attractive land proposition. Anyone can figure out what 640 acres will cost at ten dollars per acre. On this section of land the yield of wheat at 35 bushels to the acre will be 22,400 bushels and even at fifty cents per bushel you have an income of $11,200 per year. Here is a great big certain income and the investment need not be large, as we sell the land on time. Thousands of persons are buying lands in this locality and most of them are improving it. Some have been farming there for years and those who join our excursions can talk with these people and satisfy themselves in regard to the conditions. Excursions are run every Tuesday during the summer months. This is a good firm with which to form business relations. They are strictly honorable and can be relied upon. Their offices are located at No. 23 Milwaukee street, this city, and all are invited to call and investigate the above proposition.

STATEMENT MADE AS TO MR. DIETZ AGAIN

Rice Lake Business Man Resents
What The Gazette Said Regarding Him as a Man.

Exceptions are taken to the stories published in The Gazette relative to the Dietz affair at Cameron Dam by friends of Mr. Dietz and the following is taken from the Brodhead Independent:

The Janesville Gazette quotes Sheriff Wm. Appleby as follows, on his unsuccessful expedition to capture Dietz:

"It would be a very easy matter to get that man if a criminal warrant could be secured," said Mr. Appleby. "He is desperate and would doubtless shoot somebody before he is taken, but he shows himself to be a coward, when he surrounds himself with the women and children every time anybody approaches the dam. He could then use his guns and the attacking party could not without risking the life of the little ones and women. At the last minute the judge ordered us not to shoot under any circumstances, and that spoiled all our chances to take the fellow. But as soon as he does anything so that a criminal warrant can be secured, he will be taken. We will get him yet."

A diagram accompanying it showed that the Cameron dam cannot be seen from Mr. Dietz's house. The river makes a large curve which is followed closely by a large hill. Dietz's house is at the foot of this hill near the river, and as the dam is around the curve of the river it is impossible to see it. Appleby says it would be easy to get Dietz if a criminal warrant could be got, etc., and says Dietz is a coward and surrounds himself with women and children when any one approaches the dam, and the dam cannot be seen from Dietz's house. Appleby also says as soon as Dietz does anything so that a criminal warrant can be secured he will be taken.

Well, God knows the company or their agents have tried to provoke Dietz to criminate himself. Dietz has lived within five miles of Rice Lake since 1871. He was then a boy of ten years. He is a man of good principles and has a host of friends where he is best known.

Sheriff Appleby will find his mistake if he thinks Dietz a coward, either morally or physically.

SINGS THE PRAISES OF MARINETTE CITY

Col. E. O. Kimberley Returns From Big Reunion of Veterans in the North Wisconsin Town.

Col. E. O. Kimberley returned last evening from the annual gathering of the Upper Peninsula of Michigan and Northern Wisconsin Veterans' Association, at Marinette, and reports one of the most delightful times in his experience. The entire week was devoted to the reunion and there were camp-fires at the armory, concerts by Amosden's military band, picnics at the beautiful Northern Chautauqua Assembly grounds on the shores of Green Bay, automobile excursions through Marinette and Menominee and their environs, and an excursion on the lake aboard Isaac Stephenson's private steam-yacht "The Bonita." Col. Kimberley was not aboard the craft on Thursday when the explosion occurred but one of the Beloit visitors had a part in the exciting experience. The festivities concluded with a big farewell gathering at the Scott theatre when, amid enthusiasm rarely witnessed, the veterans tendered their thanks to Lant Wood who had been the moving spirit behind the elaborate arrangements and made his daughter, Miss Lucy Wood, "the daughter of the Association." Col. Kimberley led the singing at this big meeting and remarks were made by Ex-Gov. Hoard, Phil Cheek of Baraboo, Col. Copeland of La Crosse, Congressman Jenkins, and others. "Marinette," says Col. Kimberley, "is a beautiful city. The veterans will not soon forget the lavish hospitality of its people."

Very Well Represented.
In the Janesville District Epworth League convention which was held at Edgerton June 23-25, Orfordville was by no means neglected or non-represented. Six members of the Epworth League were present. They were: Rev. Chas. W. Boag, Chas. Taylor, Misses Elsie Taylor, Ida Taylor, Lois Dunn and Mrs. W. F. Gayer. The Junior League was represented by Verna Mowe, Hazel Setzer, Cora Munson, Mildred Dunn, Evelyn Dunn, Herald Taylor and Elmer Egan. Rev. Boag, the pastor, besides giving an excellent and commendable report of the Junior League gave an excellent address on "Pledge or no Pledge," in which he made the two points that an Epworth League pledge was necessary to an organization and that it gave a standing ground and protection to the young people which compose the Epworth League. Chas. Taylor read a paper on "How Shall We Win Our Young People?" It was in many respects a literary masterpiece in beautiful language, logical in order and full of strong and inspiring and appropriate thought. Miss Elsie Taylor gave a solo and in her usual way made a lasting impression with her sweet and cultured voice. The audience showed their appreciation by their hearty applause. The Junior Quartet, Hazel Setzer, Cora Munson, Verna Mowe and Mildred Dunn rendered a most excellent selection and greatly pleased all who were present. Herald Taylor and Elmer Egan both had a recitation. Last but not least little Evelyn Dunn gave two solos and just carried the audience with her sweet singing.

PICNIC AND REUNION OF GRIFFIN FAMILY AT MILLER'S GROVE NEAR AFTON

All immediate members except Conductor Griffen of Janesville were present. Is a Pioneer Family.
Afton, June 30.—Miller's Grove, north of the village, was the scene of a very enjoyable picnic Thursday, the occasion being given in honor of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Ellis, of Los Angeles, Cal., and Mrs. Emma Stump of Kansas. About four score relatives and friends of these people were present, the event being somewhat in the nature of a big reunion for the Griffen family, all the immediate members of which were present save Benjamin F. Griffen, of Janesville, whose duties as conductor for the Chicago and Northwestern railway kept him from coming.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Griffen were among the early settlers in this town, coming here from Pennsylvania in 1851, and settling on the farm where they resided together until 1891, when Mr. Griffen died. Mrs. Griffen, still active and energetic at the age of 78, was present at the picnic and thoroughly enjoyed the occasion. Fourteen children were born to Mr. and Mrs. Griffen, ten of whom are now living, eight daughters and two sons. Those present at Thursday's gathering were Mesdames Mary Goss, Emma Stump, Addie Spoon, Jane Withington, Josephine Antisdel, Etta Otis, Hattie Blanchard and Kittie Ellis and Mr. Charles H. Griffen, who resides at the old homestead. In addition to these immediate members of the family there were several grandchildren and other near relatives present, as well as some of the intimate friends and neighbors, to all of whom the occasion proved one of pleasure and interest. A bountiful dinner was served at noon, after which athletic games were the order, and as a closing feature a group picture of the entire assemblage was taken by E. E. Burdick of Janesville.

COUNTRY STOCKS DECREASING

Merchants in the Interior Report Healthy Trading Demand in All Lines of Staples, While Labor is Finding Steady Employment.

Chicago, July 1.—The review of Chicago trade for the week ended June 30, published by R. G. Dun & Co., says:

"Commerce has maintained steady progress. Midyear conditions have been entered upon, but less than the customary shutting down for repairs and inventories is contemplated, owing to the urgency of demands in the manufacturing branches. The week's activity is well reflected in sustained production in the metal and wood divisions, and in a heavy movement of general merchandise, grain, lumber and construction material.

"The crop situation is seen to be offering further encouragement as a basis for future business enterprise. New wheat of high grade is arriving, the oats harvest in Illinois has started, and local dealings in cereals aggregated close upon 9,000,000 bushels for the week. More seasonable weather added to the general buying in principal retail lines and the sales exceeded those of the corresponding week last year in necessities and vacation goods, indicating that the purchasing power of the people has not hitherto been better. Interior advices reflect widened trading at the country stores and satisfactory depletion of stocks. Wholesale transactions make a healthy exhibit, there being continued growth in the forward selections of staple wares and orders from an extended breadth of territory in dry goods, clothing and footwear.

Finances on Strong Basis.
"Financial affairs are upon a strong foundation. Money remains ample for ordinary needs, security investment has gained, and labor finds steady employment. While pig iron production exceeds that of a year ago, available stocks are light and bookings for the last half of 1905 make a fair average.

"Finished steel deliveries indicate enormous consumption and the new commitments show less lagging at this time than was expected. Rails were in good request for next year and increasing orders require added output in machinery, hardware, foundry and brass work.

"Receipts of hides were 2,890,323 pounds, against 2,580,926 pounds a year ago. The markets for hides and leather maintained a good tone, leather workers are more largely engaged, and steady accretion is noted in the demand for shoes.

Good Demand for Foodstuffs.
"Primary foodstuffs again were in excellent demand and values assumed a higher range. Receipts of grain, 4,085,860 bushels for the corresponding week last year, and the shipments aggregated 4,145,789 bushels, against 2,445,332 bushels. Shipments of provisions have been unusually heavy for both domestic and export use. Receipts of live stock were 252,064 head, against 271,742 head a year ago, the decrease being mainly in cattle, and supplies sold readily at better prices. Compared with the closings a week ago quotations are higher, in wheat 2½ cents per bushel, corn 1½ cents, oats, ¾ cent, pork and ribs 7½ cents, lard 2½ cents, sheep 25 cents a hundred-weight, hogs 17½ cents, and cattle 15 cents.

"Failures reported in the Chicago district number 31, against 17 last week and 28 a year ago."

Burglars Beat Women.
New York, July 1.—Three burglars entered the home of Emil Koch, a farmer near Bloomingdale, N. J., when Koch was absent, attacked his wife and sister Gertrude and Minnie Mertz, blinding Minnie with sulphuric acid. Her sister was beaten into unconsciousness.

"Slide for Life" Is Fatal.

WHY IT SUCCEEDS

Because It's For One Thing Only and Janesville is Learning This.

Nothing can be good for anything. Doing one thing well brings success.

Doan's Kidney Pills do one thing only. They are for sick kidneys. They cure backache, every kidney ail.

Here is evidence to prove it. Mrs. George M. Carey of 1020 Pleasant street, Beloit, says: "I could hardly realize that the first box of Doan's Kidney Pills obtained at C. E. Emerson's drug store did me so much good. I used medicines from the doctor which helped me for a time but soon I became as bad as ever if not worse. I suffered from disordered kidneys for four years and the pain in my back was terrible. I could not sleep but at times had to sit up almost the entire night. When rising from a chair I was often compelled to place my hands on the sides of it and raise myself up to keep the strain off my back. I also suffered from the disturbing of my rest at night. After using Doan's Kidney Pills a short time these symptoms left me and since then I have felt well."

Plenty more proof like this from Janesville people. Call at the People's drug store and ask what their customers report.

A PEN PICTURE OF ASBURY PARK

LAWRENCE D. FOGG DESCRIBES WONDERLAND BY THE WAVES.

QUEEN OF WATERING PLACES

Nineteen Go From Janesville; Some for Recreation, Some for the N. E. A. Convention.

(By Lawrence D. Fogg.)
Many poets have sung the praises of this queen of resorts, but poets have license, and, like politicians, are not to be trusted too implicitly. More evident evidence of the many charms of Asbury Park, which will entertain the great National Educational Association in July, is to be found in its picture of sylvan beauty splashed upon the "ten league canvas" bringing that satisfaction which can come only to those in whom the love of nature is natural and not acquired. But the beauties of nature, of which Asbury Park boasts, are reinforced by nearly all the amenities of twentieth century civilization. The visitor may travel thither by rail, in coach or Pullman car, or may take a delightful sail from New York on the Sandy Hook steamers. To a home-staying longshoreman these floating palaces are a revelation. A trip in them is an excursion in itself.

To those who have visited the "queen city by the sea" and come beneath its spell, the name Asbury Park is sufficient to inspire the sweet remembrance of an ideal holiday and a front is the vast expanse of shimmering sea, dotted with boats, white winged yachts and pleasure steamers, broken only by the jutting piers, which when the proposed amusement pier is completed, will recall to mind Neptune's allegorical trident. The sands are peopled with visitors from all parts of the world, happy in enjoying the sweetness of the vitalizing air and the animation of the scene.

At all times the beach is full of happiest interest to young and old.

All along the promenade the unbroken sweep of the Atlantic ebbs and flows day by day. In time of calm, the waves roll up to the boardwalk and disport themselves, according to mood, until the time of return.
In the morning, the blue sky and gleam of sun may be reflected in all the eddies and dimples of the tide; in the evening when the setting sun has left an afterglow of rainbow hues, the vision is entrancing. When "the winds lift up their voices" and the sea is in a fury, as if Neptune were whipping his foaming steeds to frenzy,

the scene is one of grandeur indescribable.

hygiene and happiness.

nation's bathub," are a few of the or with the moon in the ascendant,

Park. Its equable climate, its brackling air, laden with that health-restoring breath of the sea which we invite the health seeker.

few places are more delightful than the promenade, which is straddled from end to end with electric arc lights, a string of pearls whose radiance continues day far into the night. In the evening when the setting sun has

winds lift up their voices" and the

whipping his foaming steeds to frenzy,

the scene is one of grandeur indescribable.

The disciple of Izaak Walton will find sport worthy of his rod in the gamey bass and other fish which here abound. The devotee of the royal game of golf may "drive" to his heart's content. Those to whom

"the dance is the thing" will find

Terpsichore enthroned in innumerable ball rooms, casino and arcade.

One may be bowled out without making a strike. Flirtation is not unknown, for in the heart of the summer girl as well as in the games of billiards and ping pong, love means nothing.

Canoing on the three fresh water lakes which lie like gems in the dia-dem of the queen city, is a popular diversion. Deal lake, named by the Indians Wickapecko, has five branches and extends several miles into a wooded section of scenic beauty. For those who wish for "meditation," fancy free" or who believe in the adage that "two is company," a ramble along the lake shores or a plying of its waters in a light canoe, is the perfection of enjoyment. As the paddles lazily dipped in the water

there is a soothing moving forward, a slap of waves upon the eutwater, and a kiss of bursting bubble spray.

Tomorrow is forgotten in the roses of the hour. In the dreamy moonlight whiteness all the world is romance.

Shadows are playing hide and seek along the lake, tagged here and there by a darting motor launch or drifting canoe. Overhead the sky, untroubled by cloud, is speckled with the cleanest stars. Cassiopeia's jagged saw teeth, the Dipper with its drooping tail, the misty bandage of the Milky

Way, Orion's girdle—all are there.

One may build castles in Spain at will.

For those who want to rest and dream awhile, it is passing peaceful here, away from the strain and stress of business life. The resort's environs are embosomed in perennial verdure, overhung by trees whose branches droop to babbling streams that run their musical course over pebbles to lakes and sea. Three thousand miles of ocean stretch away to the eastward, fringed with long stretches of silvery sand attractive to the bathers and to the child whose chief joy lies in bucket and spade. There is an ever present fascination in watching the restless billows which for ages have surged upon these shores. What a gay, careless life it is, sporting in the surf,

the cool spray falling on hair and eyes and lips like kisses in a dream!

Who can decipher the meaning of sea as it rolls in on crested waves, leaving little lines of foamy foam on the sand at one's feet? What might not the sea tell if it would, with its laughter and its moaning, its many-toned voices and its hoary wisdom of all time?

"See Naples and then die," say the Italians. "See Asbury Park and then live," is the Americanized proverb. Heed the call of the sea. It is the tocsin that yearly brings beauty and rest and happiness to brains that are weary and hearts that are worn.

Nineteen, fourteen of them Janes-

PRAISE FOR BERGH AS

FATHER OF THE LAW

Claim That State Bank Inspector Has

Done Much to Improve

The Conditions.

[SPECIAL TO THE GAZETTE.]

Madison, Wis., July 1.—Marcus C.

Bergh, who was elected Wednesday as president of the National Association of Supervisors of State Banks,

at the annual meeting in Portland,

Maine, is a prominent member of the large number of Norwegians in Wisconsin who have achieved distinction in politics and have attained high place in public affairs. For the last four years he has been state commissioner of banking in Wisconsin, having supervision over the hundreds of banks organized under the state law, and also the numerous building and loan associations. He is credited with being the father of the present state banking law, which was enacted two years ago and which legislated out of existence a large number of prirate banks which were the most unsafe financial institutions of this state.

He is a close political associate of Lieutenant Governor J. O. Davidson,

who will become governor when Gov.

ernor La Follette resigns to become

United States senator. Commissioner

Bergh is known for his conservatism and the strictness with which he enforces the state banking laws. He served the national association for years as its secretary-treasurer. His home is in Viroqua, Vernon county,

the center of a thriving Norwegian community.

dicted persons.

The most important matter to come before the English Lutheran was the plan of providing a fund for the support of the superannuated ministers and widows and orphans of the deceased ministers. The plan proposed was that each pastor and professor pay 1 per cent of his salary and the congregations 10 cents per member.
